

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

I Top Row: Alexis Rangel, Alibelle Pilimai, McKenna Lopez, Amanda Zamora, Hea Pauu, Ava McInnes, and Sisi Pauu
Bottom Row: Chloe Sanchez, Erin Clement, Keely White, Maddy Schiefelbein, Kuriae Dunn, Citlalli Vergara, and Alexis Gonzalez
II Senior Hea Pauu gets ready to receive the serve from Pacifica High School.

Sisi Pauu
Setter

Q: What is your motivation to play volleyball?
"Volleyball is fun, I enjoy it. My teammates are my motivation. I don't want to let them down."

Chloe Sanchez
Libero

Q: Why do you play volleyball?
"I love the sport and I strive to be the best at everything that matters to me. I want to be a great player for my team."

Keely White
Outside Hitter

Q: How does playing volleyball contribute to your school life?
"I play volleyball because I am involved in many different activities and a lot of stressful classes. It's a way for me to relieve my stress and clear my mind."

III Senior Alibelle Pilimai spikes in the game against Santa Ana Valley.
IV Senior Sisi Pauu warms up before the Dig Pink game.
V The Lady Tillers demonstrate good sportsmanship after their pre-season win against Irvine High School.
VI Seniors Alexis Rangel and Keely White celebrate a point for their team during their Dig Pink Game against Cypress High School.

Alibelle Pilimai

Senior Alibelle Pilimai has been given the Empire League Most Valuable Player award for her outstanding achievements as a middle blocker during the 2016 Girls Volleyball Season. She is the first girl in the history of the Tustin Volleyball Program to be awarded with this honor.

VII Senior Alexis Rangel and Freshman Ava McInnes set up a perfect block against Cypress's outside hitter during their Breast Cancer Awareness game.
VIII Senior Madelene Schiefelbein delivers a set to Tustin's outside hitter during their game against Pacifica High School.
IX The girls huddle for a pep talk before the Teacher Appreciation Game against Western High School.
X Senior Chloe Sanchez runs through the Frosh-Junior tunnel before the Tustin-Pacific game.